Cereals Canada Celebrates Passing of C-49

Cereals Canada is pleased to applaud the successful passing of Bill C-49 in both the House of Commons and Senate. C-49's passing is integral to the future vitality of Canada's cereals sector.

Winnipeg, Wednesday, May 23, 2018 – Cereals Canada thanks Minister Marc Garneau and Minister Laurence MacAulay for their efforts on bringing forward this legislation. C-49 will improve Canada's ability to deliver grain to our customers in a timely fashion. We also appreciate the thoughtful amendments brought forward by the Senate that have improved C-49's effectiveness.

"C-49 supports our reputation as a reliable supplier of grain. Passing this legislation reinforces the "Canada brand" as a reliable and trusted, supplier of safe, nutritious, and sustainable food" stated Cam Dahl, President of Cereals Canada

"Cereals Canada views this legislation as an historic achievement for the grains industry," continued Dahl. " C-49 will provide for better commercial accountability in the grain transportation system and introduces competitive options for shippers. This outcome is good news for everyone involved – including Canada's customers."

"Cereals Canada appreciates the work that has been done on this important piece of legislation. We are committed to working with government as the regulations are drafted to implement the legislation," concluded Dahl.
